BIOGRAPHY

Born in 1971, Lil' Magic Sam is a self-taught producer, singer-songwriter, harmonica player and guitarist. On stage at 6 with Jacques Higelin — Casino de Paris, Mogador, Bercy. In the early 1980s, John Lee Hooker and Willie Dixon gave him his nickname 'Little Magic Sam' at the Casino de Paris alongside John Hammond Jr., Luther Allison and Sugar Blue.

As a teenager in Chicago, hired by Big Time Sarah, he played alongside James Cotton, Lonnie Brooks, Buddy Guy, Junior Wells. The US press called him 'The little blues boy of summer 86' (Chicago Tribune). He joined the Luther Allison Band and toured Europe and the US. At Montreux 1989, he jammed with Steve Cropper, opened for Roy Rogers with Bernard Allison, before Claude Nobs invited him to jam with B.B. King and Johnny Taylor.

Through the 1990s, he developed his 'Chicago Heart & Soul Blues' — influenced by Jimi Hendrix, Little Walter, Freddie King, B.B. King, Luther Allison, Otis Redding, Stevie Ray Vaughan. Support acts: Roy Rogers, Lucky Peterson, Bernard Allison, Diana Krall (Tabarka), Jean-Jacques Milteau...

After a parental break, he returned in 2023 with EP "No More Time", then September 2025 with "Tired Out" — 13 original compositions, self-produced. #1 on The Roots Music Report Top 50 France Album Chart, staying Top 3 for over 6 consecutive weeks. #5 (April 4, 2026) and #3 (April 11, 2026) on the Top 50 International Electric Blues Album Chart. 4-page article and interview in Blues Magazine n°119 (Jan/Feb 2026). Over 70 radio stations in 16 countries.

Lil' Magic Sam performs as a quintet — raw, powerful, no-frills blues.
